

FIREMEN'S NINE OFF FOR GAME

A big delegation of Boston firemen is here via the Fall River Line this evening for New York, there to do battle on the diamond-to-marble fight with the representatives of the New York Fire Department. This trip is made on the understanding, the men will be in New York outlined to two full days. Here's the lineup as given out by Manager James P. Malone today:

John McDermott, Engine 38, ss.
J. A. Cronin, Ladder 23, ss.
Bernie Condon, Ladder 9, if.
David A. Truscande, Engine 15, cf.
Joe McGee, Engine 8, p.
James A. Toland, Engine 8, p.
Joseph Dunn, Engine 4, 2b.
Matthew Keasler, Ladder 10, ss.
William McDermott, Engine 8, p.

Builds these things are utility money—character A. Dollars of Empire 7. An Warren C. Stevens, of Empire 22. On the regular from there are four men who can do pitch and four outfielders. In New York they are promoted a high school and college baseball player. On morning—the game at Bronx Park. The game was played in the morning at a mysterious location on the eighth street. They return to Boston on the midnight train.

STOKES IN RAGE ON THE STAND

accident I learned today that you are in Paris, where, I am told, you are going to stay for a long time. Who did you not see at the party you were going to? I have been right, don't you think so?

Your friend, Mr. Duff, and that other fellow, the one who spoke of you as a man who is in it through them, I have of you.

Here, underlined in Mr. Stokes' hand writing:

Duff's mother and sister live in Paris and are very much.

If you have anything better to do, some day, when you are strolling down the boulevard, buy a little something for a housewife for me.

By the way, Collins is still in the city. He is going to marry a very rich man. It is a pretty good sort of a fellow that he would be, and he is a whole lot.

Now let's take a little check.

You can get this little check cashed at Messrs. & Company, or there is a money man in the American Express Company, who knows me well. Anyhow, deposit it to your credit, and when the money comes, show it in on my account.

With kindest regards, I am yours very sincerely,

MISS LILLIAN GRAHAM

Mr. Stokes, whose photograph appears at the bottom of this page, was found dead while he was in the apartment Miss Conrad and Miss Graham discovered, plans to kill him.

Advances Mr. Stokes.

I am over twice as old as you are. I have had a lot of experience with the world. My advice to you is to drop all work.

If I were a young handsome, marriageable man, but I am a divorcee, for hidden to marry by the State, and any man who failed to make one woman happy would be a fool to try to make another one, and besides that, I am not only open my eyes as common sense, and if you follow it you will not regret it.

You worry some rich young fellow, whose companionship will be worth more to you than all the worthless admiration of a cheap stage or a vaudeville artist life. You say, "I am married—the other."

THE EVOLUTION OF A TEMPERANCE DRINK

How Hires Rootbeer Came to be Discovered.

For ages there has been a desire on the part of millions of people to find a drink at once delightful to the taste and agreeable to the system. In the effort to find this drink, chemists have experimented with essential oils, synthetic flavors, and even sedatives and narcotics.

Many discoveries of fruit drinks have been made. Some of these have been exquisitely pleasing combinations of refreshing drinks, but it was found that the human system would take only a limited amount of the fruit acid, that more than that amount would cause excess of gastric juice.

Hires Rootbeer was worked out as a result of the study of how to make a drink at once healthful and pleasing. It is the one beverage that can have only beneficial effects on the system no matter how much of it is taken.

The pleasing flavor is the result of the ingredients that enter into it: Sarsaparilla, Juniper Berries, Hops, Spikenard, Teaberry Leaves, Ginger and Sassafras.

Hundreds of thousands of people have drunk Hires from babyhood to middle age, for Hires has been made for more than a third of a century. It has been perhaps longer and more favorably known by a greater number of physicians, than any other drink.

The tonic value of the roots and herbs that enter into it is well known. Hires never disturbs the stomach, but only benefits the blood while pleasing the taste and quenching the thirst. That is the reason why it has come to be regarded as the great National drink.

The Yours truly plan makes it easier—safer and more dependable for you to purchase your table foods.

There is now no need to serve so many different foods of various names and grades—nor to burden your mind with these things. For the first time it is possible for you to secure many foods under the one reliable name Yours truly. Foods of one uniform quality and the same strict purity.

You can have the finest grade of macaroni and spaghetti—whole and tender. The same high quality of soups—delicious in flavor—and the equal of them both in any or all of the other Yours truly products.

It's your protection—you can absolutely depend on it. Yours truly is a guarantee of pure—wholesome—delicious foods. Each one made by the same stern standard for high quality—richness of flavor and superiority.

—BY REV. A. E. GEORGE

A LITTLE infant lay sleeping on a rude pillow, placed on the brick walk of a sheltered alley way in one of the most congested districts of this city. As I entered the alley from the sun-baked street the baby was alone, the How sweetly the little one slept. Its mother soon appeared, for she had been watching in the back yard. The heat there was intense. Between two houses not a breath of air was circulating.

Heat Prevents Sleep

"I put my babe there because it's like an oven in my temperament on the top floor," said the mother. "It's the only cool spot in his house. Last night it was terrible on that floor. None of us slept and my baby has been awake nearly all night."

A sick child was being carefully looked after by an older sister. Old men and women lounged in the shade of a building once it was hot and sat there watching a woman would throw out a large pan of water, preceding the act by a shout of warning. Boys would rush up and sweep the water with we used brooms all over the sidewalk.

The Routine of the Poor

If you want to see what life is these warm days, go into the homes of the very poor. They have no fire. They have little or no fruit. It is the same thing

Every night three children sleep on the kitchen floor. I returned about bedtime. The heat of the rooms was intense. Yet the three children threw themselves upon the mattress on the floor and tried to sleep. In an adjoining room, the mother and the three oldest children were also endeavoring to sleep.

But what a place to sleep in! We, who live in so much better quarters, are apt to complain of the heat. But think of this family, with so little to do with. Every day, they have the same kind of hard and painful. Nothing more

I was there when the ice cream man of the street came around, and then all the children in their nightgowns ran to the window to look out and to wish for ice cream.

Their Wish Gratified

"This makes it so hard," said the mother. "My children want fruit all the time. They're tired of bread and potatoes but bread is harder to get."

toes and when they all begin to cry for something else, I just can't stand it." But they did get some ice cream that night, and a happier lot of children could not be seen anywhere. They forgot the heat. I could hear them say, "I wish I had some more."

These hot days in the tenement districts reveal many strange sides of Roman life. In another block, to the top floor, I saw a woman draw up a hose, which was attached to the
